COURSE DESCRIPTION
Macroeconomic theory is discussed in the context of an economy which is engaging in international trade. Besides dealing with the effects of trade on such things as domestic employment and inflation, the course places considerable emphasis on how trade is financed, exchange rate and balance of payments determination, the international financial system and macroeconomic policy.

PREREQUISITES
EC250 or EC290 (or EC240). EC250 or EC290 (or EC240) may be taken as a corequisite.

EVALUATION

Two Optional Assignments (You do NOT have to Submit)  0%
Two Required Assignments  10%
Mid-term Exam  40%
Final Exam (Comprehensive)  50%

The course grade will be determined by the following rule:
Course Grade = maximum {(10\% of Assignments + 40\% of Midterm + 50\% Final),
(10\% of assignments + 90\% of Final)}

Students must write both the midterm exam and final exam to pass this course. If a student misses the midterm exam due to acceptable medical reasons or unavoidable circumstances, the weight of his or her midterm exam will be added to the final exam. Students must report to me the reasons of not writing the midterm exam prior to the exam date or immediately after the exam.

ACCESSIBLE LEARNING STATEMENT

Students with disabilities or special needs are advised to contact Laurier’s Accessible Learning Centre for information regarding its services and resources. Students are encouraged to review the Calendar for information regarding all services available on campus.

ACADEMIC AND RESEARCH MISCONDUCT

You are reminded that the University will levy sanctions on students who are found to have committed, or have attempted to commit, acts of academic or research misconduct. You are expected to know what constitutes an academic offense, to avoid committing such offenses, and to take responsibility for your academic actions. For information on categories of offenses and types of penalty, please consult the relevant section of the Undergraduate Academic Calendar. If you need clarification of aspects of University policy on Academic and Research Misconduct, please consult your instructor.

Wilfrid Laurier University uses software that can check for plagiarism. Students may be required to submit their written work in electronic form and have it checked for plagiarism.

TIPS TO DO WELL IN THIS COURSE

- Attend all the lectures and actively participate in class. Feel free to ask as many questions as you want in the class. There is no ‘stupid question’ in my class.
- Read the textbook and other assigned readings between the lines and go through your lecture notes from the class. If you have any questions, please ask me during my office hours.
- Do all the assignments. Assignments are meant for helping you understand the course materials and prepare you for the exams.
- Go through the solutions to all assignments and mid-term carefully. If you face any problems, feel free to stop by during my office hours.
